

CHARLESTON SCHOOL OF LAW HOSTS 5K TO SUPPORT THE Lowcountry Housing Trust

RACE JUDICATA

For Immediate Release
March 19, 2007

Media Contact:
Elizabeth A. Camputaro
Chair, "Race Judicata" ecamputaro@charlestonlaw.org
843-330-8454

Tammie C. Hoy, Executive Director
tammie@lowcountryhousingtrust.org
843-973-7285 office
843-864-9800 cellular

The Charleston School of Law is hosting its first annual "Race Judicata" on Saturday, March 24, 2007. The 5K run/walk will begin at 8:30 a.m. downtown in Hampton Park and wind through the historic Citadel campus.

The Charleston School of Law Community Service Committee and Juris One Sports Law Organization are dedicated to fostering the importance of philanthropy and fulfilling the Charleston School of Law's mission of public service within the local community. Attorneys and judges will join together with professors and students to raise awareness and funds for the Lowcountry Housing Trust.

The Lowcountry Housing Trust, Inc. (LHT) is a regional advocate for affordable housing. LHT is a 501(c) 3 non-profit organization established to provide a dedicated ongoing source of funding for the production and preservation of affordable housing, and to actively work to encourage and implement policies that reduce unnecessary regulatory barriers to such production in Berkeley, Charleston, and Dorchester counties. Proceeds of the first annual "Race Judicata" will be donated to this worthwhile cause.

To register for the race, logon to <http://www.charlestonlaw.org> and to learn more about LHT, logon to www.lowcountryhousingtrust.org.